(For private circulation only)

April 2024

Dear Readers,

"Great literature is simply language charged with meaning to the utmost possible degree."

- Ezra Pound

With immense pleasure, the Department of English presents the newsletter for the academic year 2023-2024. The Department of English always aims at giving its best to the students, be it academics or extra-curricular activities. This newsletter gives an insight into the activities of the department and also highlights the achievements of the faculties and the students. The English Department works diligently to create a conducive environment for the development of the students.
