

DEPARTMENT OF ENGLISH

Programme Title: M.A. English

Programme Outcomes

- PO1: To help the students apply the knowledge to understand the problems and solve the social and economical problems in a systematic way.
- PO2: To enhance the ability of the students to present the literary concepts with deep understanding and insights.
- PO3: To enable the students to take up research by recognising need and impact of new developments on current practices.
- PO4: To inculcate life's philosophy through different types of literature.
- PO5: To equip the students with the ethics of teaching and strengthen their employability skills.
- PO6: To enhance the interpersonal skills of the students to assess and generate creativity.

Programme Specific Outcomes

- PSO1: To enhance knowledge and insight into English language and Literature on an advanced level
- PSO2: To develop openness to new ideas, perspectives and ways of thinking.
- PSO3: To infuse aesthetic sensibility, critical and analytical skills along with creativity.
- PSO4: To enhance skill in research and research methodology.
- PSO5: To demonstrate skill in organising and expressing ideas and perspectives with clarity and coherence through writing.
- PSO6: To enhance the ability to attempt theory based evaluation and analysis of literary texts
- PSO7: To develop the ability to face the challenges of life and have enhanced career prospects and employability
- PSO8: To enhance the knowledge of world literatures and insight into different cultural traditions.